Terry,

Good evening bro. This Thursday Kenny and Lindell came out to Arizona. Lindell is speaking at one of the churches here this Sunday. They are suppose to go back home on Monday, tomorrow. I did not see them nor did mom. I guess dad got to spend about 5 hours with the two of them. Mom was taking Physical Therpy and I was the one to drive her there. I know they would of loved to see you also. Mom and I are thinking about going out to Mo. next month to see the family. Mary is doing pretty bad, or that is what I am hearing. And mom being where she needs help cant make the trip by herself. We dont know at the moment if she can even make that trip by plane. She has an appointment on the 24th of this month, I told her today we will ask her doctor. I came out to see you and Bob on Monday. I have got to change the flowers to Easter Lilys. Easter will be coming up soon and Im going to have to get you another motorcyle. Thats my new thing. I know how much you enjoyed yours and I think it is only right to have a toy one on your grave. So when I see you don't have one I will put another one there for you. Terry I miss you. Still feels like you should be here. And I wish you were. I know in the end there we did not see each other, but that still did not keep me from asking mom and dad about you nor did it keep me from thinking about you. I still loved you, and i still do. We are all having a hard time with u and Bob leaving. It has almost been 8 months, and something like this is very hard to pick yourself up and carry on. I know someday we will all do it, we all will find away, but today it is still too new for us. Well bro. keep an eye on us, I love u and I miss u. Forever in my heart and on my mind.

Your sister Trina

Happy Valentine's Day Terry-

I miss you and Bob alot, but at this moment I miss having my purple slipper more then anything. I know you and Bob took it, so now Im asking for it back, Please! I have not been there to see you lately. Time seems to be my issue. I decided that I was not going to be able to go to school this semester. Mom is staying with me again and Cody being in a group home. All of this requires my time. But that does not keep me from thinking about you and missing u more and more each day. I think about the past and how I wish u were around to tell one of your silly jokes, or just to hear ur laugh. If I listen hard enough sometimes I still can hear it in the distance. And when Im alone, which is not often, I will sit and think about the past and sometimes I think about how things would be if only you and Bob were still here. I just wish that I would of done something more to keep in touch with you. but I know I or no one else in this family can do that now. Like it has been said before You never know what you have until it is gone. And none of us realized what a friend, brother, son, uncle, father or husband we had in you until you were taken from us. But that still does not keep us from changing the ways of the past. We all say the same thing that its only us now, now that we have loss u and Bob, but none of us are taking heed to losing u two and trying to get closer, before yet another one of us leaves to protect our family up in Heaven with the two of you. I wish we would of had more time with you, but I realize that you stayed away from us because why trouble yourself with a family who does not appreciate each other. And to a certain degree we are still that way. So God taking two good men has taught us nothing, and losing you and Bob has also taught us nothing. We are still looking out for number 1 instead of pulling together as a family. I just don't understand and I will never understand. I know losing you and Bob has me thinking that we are all getting older and two of my brothers are gone, who I will never see again or get advice from. But Im suppose to get support from the other 3 who I really cant trust. Well I guess I will go I love u with all my heart and soul. You are forever in my heart and on my mind. Your little sister Trina

trina

Good evening Terry,

Have been thinking about you alot lately. I can't say really why. I don't know, you and Bob have been on my mind lately that's all I guess. I have not had the chance to go and see you or Bob lately. With everything that has been going on with Cody it has been hard. I'm going out there tomorrow, it will be my birthday and I have decided that tomorrow is as good as any day to come and see the two of you. Mom is having a hard time with your death. She really does not talk much about the two of you, Bob and you that is, but when she does it is you she talks about. Dad tries to forget about the two of you and he makes her feel bad if she talks about the two of you, I guess it is easier this way around him. I know losing you was unexpected and I know we are all having a hard time with your passing. And it is mainly because we never expected you to go, the way you did anyway. Bob we knew he was going and in some way I guess we got our hearts set on the fact that he was going and if you want to call it getting use to the fact he was going. I don't think even if you are told that someone is dying that you can get use to the fact that they are actually dying. Well I guess I will go. I love you and miss you. Wish you were here, we all love you, wish we would of all been able to tell you that before you left us. Your little sister Trina

Dear Terry,

Have not been on for awhile. The web page was closed. Just thought I would write to you and let you know that mom and I came out to see you and Bob about a week before Bob's birthday, mom looked so sad. When you ask her about you and Terry she will answer. but I dont think it is the full truth. You know how mom is, she only answers you the way she thinks you want to the answer. Cody went to the group home on the 22nd. It has been hard. I wonder sometimes what it would of been like if I would of had someone like you and Bob, the two of you were good fathers. You loved your children very much. I know there was not a thing the two of you would of not done for your children. Well I just thought I would say hi and that I love the two of you. Miss you a lot more then words can say and you continue to take care of Laurie and Shelby, look after your little brother. You take care your little sister Trina

Terry,

Thought i would write to let you know I came out to see you and Bob today. It was raining, and very cold. I put new flowers down for you, red roses. You know next month will be Valentines day, so I am one month early. I got you another motorcyle for your grave, we thought the other one was stolen, and of course it was not. But you are worth it. Your plot is the most beautiful one out there, you can see it from miles away. I asked if the floweres looked manly enough for you, and they do. At least others can tell that your grave is visited often. Some out there look like no one every visits them, and I don't want people thinking that is what we do, once buried you are forgotten because that is not the case. You are very much loved and missed by your family and friends. We all wish you were here for the holidays. I ask you to continue to be with Laurie and Shelby these next weeks, because I know that even though the holidays are gone and over with that they still think about you each and every day. I know that I will see someone or something that will remind me of you and my mind will think about you. Motorcyles are the worse. I see them all the time. And every time I see one who is not wearing a helmet I want to yell out at them "Wear a helmet", but I don't. Well bro. I miss you and love you, wishing you were here. See you someday soon. Until then take care of us down here and take care of Bob, you two still have one another.

Good evening Bro.,

I have not been on for awhile writing and I thought I would get you caught up on what has been happening.... Im out of school for the next month, I dont know what my grades are yet, but I know I have had some rough classes this semester. I miss you and I think about you every day. Next Thursday it will be Christmas and I know we all will be missing you even more. Stay with Shelby and Laurie this holiday, because I know that it will be a rough one, being that it is the first year that they will not have you around. I know you were big on family and I know Christmas and Thanksgiving both are big family get together's. this last week I have been thinking alot about that last Christmas together. The fun we had and the last time I saw you before Bob left us. Memories of you and bob are all that we have now, and they mean so much to us. Memories can never take the place of you, but at least we have that much left. I know what they mean when they say life is short, because it is. None of us were prepared for you to go, but I am glad that God chose you as my brother. This family never will be the same. Mom misses you and Bob both. I know she was very proud of her two boys, she might not have said it but we all know she loves the two of you very much. Mom never has been good at showing her feelings. But this year has been tough for her. Im glad you went and saw her in the hospital, we all know how very hard it was for you, like Laurie said you wanted people to think you were tough but underneath it all you are a big fuzzy teddy bear. You took after mom in that way. Well bro., until I see you again you take care of us down here, and take care of Bob, stay with us all through the holidays and I love you and miss you.

Your sister Trina

I wish u were here to celebrate your birthday. We all miss you and love you. Today I hope all the angels in Heaven r singing and dancing. At least you have your little brother up there to also celebrate with you, one family member is better then none of us. Just know that we are thinking of you down here and missing you like crazy. Stay with Laurie and Shelby because this would of been a big day for them to celebrate. Mom went to the doctor's yesterday and when your name was brought up she started to cry. This has been very hard on her. I'm glad that you had that one last time to walk her arm in arm into Bobbys reception that day. She will always remember that, all of her children were dear to her, and I know what I'm going through I can only image what she is going through. Well I love you and miss you, you will be forever in my heart and soul. You take care of us down here.

Love your little sister,

Trina

Good afternoon Terry,

Looking forward to spending your bday with you. Wishing more so that you were here in person. Hearing your laughter, seeing you smile, and being able to tell you how much I love you. Thanks for being with me on my big report day, I felt you and Bob there keeping me together and keeping me from falling. I just want you to know I love you and miss you with all my heart.

Your little sister,

Trina

The image features two roses, one smaller and one larger, positioned in the upper right quadrant. They are set against a textured, olive-green background that resembles aged paper or parchment. The roses are rendered in a soft, slightly faded style, blending into the background.

Life Story

every hour, every thought, every smile...

December 6, 1954

Born in on December 6, 1954.

January 1, 2008

Terry Lee Tipton was born in Saint Louis Missouri, on Sunday December 6, 1954, to Chester Lee Tipton and Vivian "Maxine" Tipton. He was born the second child of 5, first son of 3.

Terry attended school both in Saint Louis and in Mesa Arizona. When Terry was 19 he enlisted in the Army. While he was there he met his first wife Vena. They had one daughter named Angie. Before coming to Arizona Vena and Terry divorced.

Shortly after arriving back to Arizona, Terry met up with his long time friend Debbi Pierce. They were married, and they had one daughter named Dacinda Tipton.

Terry was a very good father to Dacinda. He would never allow Debbi to spank her or get onto her, for anything. When Dacinda was in her teens Terry and Debbi got a divorce, and Terry moved in with his mother and father for a short while.

Shortly after Terry and Debbi divorced, Terry meet Laurie Thomas. At the time of their meeting Laurie had a daughter, but Terry accepted her as his own, Taylor. During thier marrage Terry and Laurie had a daughter named Shelby.

Terry loved to country and western dance, loved horses, and loved his wife and children very much. Terry was a friend to everyone. He did not like people to know that there was a soft and kind side to him, but as Laurie has said "He was like a warm and fuzzy teddy bear."

Terry was full of jokes and loved to laugh. His laughter could be heard a mile away. We all miss Terry's jokes and laughter.

Terry went to meet Jesus on June 30, 2008. He was on his motorcycle early in the morning going to work.

An 18 year old made a left hand turn out in the front of him. This was 2 days after we buried his little brother Bob. Both of them are missed dearly by all of us. Even though Terry is gone, he is not far away. We all hold on to the day we can see him in Heaven, and we have the memories of Terry that he left behind. Rest in peace big brother, because now you are free to fly.
